NEW MULTI-LEVEL MUSIC AND EVENT LOCATION

Veteran New York event planner Fred Seidler has partnered with The Bowery Presents, an independent New York concert promotion company, to open Terminal 5, a contemporary, multi-level event and music venue in Midtown West. The ultra modern space has 40-foot ceilings, unobstructed sightlines, state-of-the-art sound and lighting, live concert recording acoustics, five different event spaces including the large column-free main floor ballroom, a first and second wrap-around mezzanine, VIP lounge, elevated skybox, dressing rooms, outdoor rooftop, full kitchen, break-out areas and ample bathrooms. The venue will offer a rare combination of a 40,000-square-foot environment and state-of-the-art technology for events capable of accommodating from 20 to 3,988 guests. The venue is currently undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation and an opening party is planned for Fall 2007. For information and bookings at the new Terminal 5, 610 West 56th Street, contact Fred Seidler, 212 665-3832; Fred@FredSeidler.com.
